KEY TOPICS

- ✓ Sunflower market: current market conditions, processing capacity, and expectations for Ukrainian producers.
- ✓ Winter crop planting: planting progress, current field conditions, and outlook for the next harvest.
- ✓ Corn surplus: growing domestic stocks, limited export opportunities, and pressure on farm revenues and grain prices.
- ✓ Port disruptions and export constraints: ongoing difficulties with maritime exports and their impact on Ukraine's export capacity.
- ✓ Challenges facing agricultural holdings: operational and financial difficulties for companies such as MHP, Kernel, Astarta, and others amid infrastructure attacks and export disruptions.
- ✓ Grain storage capacity: mounting pressure on storage facilities and elevators as export delays leave harvested crops in storage.
- ✓ Financial pressures on small-scale farmers: increasing financial difficulties and the growing number of farm bankruptcies.
- ✓ Agricultural businesses on the market: large agricultural companies put up for sale, the reasons behind these decisions, and their potential implications for Ukraine's agricultural sector.
- ✓ Implications for international markets: potential effects of reduced Ukrainian exports on global supply, trade flows, and commodity prices.
- ✓ What lies ahead for Ukrainian farmers: how producers are adapting, the decisions they face, and the key issues shaping the months ahead.
